

Texas Survey of Alcohol and Drug Use Among College Students - 2013

This is a survey conducted by the Public Policy Research Institute at Texas A&M University about attitudes toward drug and alcohol use and risk behaviors among college students in Texas. We are interviewing about 2,600 students statewide. You are randomly selected from students at your college and your views will represent the views of hundreds of college students across the state. Please note that your answers will be kept completely confidential. We will not release any information that would identify you as a survey participant or let someone know how you answered survey questions. You are free to not answer questions that you choose. If a question makes you uncomfortable you can skip it. You will not receive payment or other compensation for the participation and will not be penalized in any way if you decide to not finish the survey.

Survey Consent

Before you go to the survey, please read the following:

I understand that:

- I am participating, along with other college students in a study of alcohol and drug use and other risky behaviors by college students in Texas.
- The study is collecting data to be used to determine how state funds will be spent.
- The survey will take about 20 minutes of my time.
- Information collected about me (including my email address) is confidential and will not be shared in a way that will identify me.
- No one has access to the information I provide but the researchers conducting this study.
- I will not be penalized in any way if I decide to not finish the survey.
- I will not be penalized if I skip questions that make me feel uncomfortable.
- I can contact Nandita Chaudhuri at NChaudhuri@ppri.tamu.edu or the Institutional Review Board at irb@tamu.edu with questions about the study and my rights as a participant.
- The study has been reviewed and approved by the Institutional Review Board – Human Subjects in Research at Texas A&M University. If you have questions about your rights as a participant or questions regarding the protocol or the study, the Texas A&M Institutional Review Board may be contacted at the Office of the Vice President for Research at (979) 458-4067 or by email at irb@tamu.edu.
